Customer Reviews

There are many tourist attractions in Paris this book is mentioned. This book has everything that we needed to know about Paris. This book is a breath of fresh air in comparison. It is full of useful advice on everything you need to know to get around in Paris and make the most of your trip. I really could have used this guide when I was in Paris a few years back. Because the book is aimed at making your trip worth remembering and a total amusement.

This "book" promotes itself as a "Comprehensive Guide to Paris". What you get is a 48-page smattering of general travel information that can be better found on the internet. The actual tour section of this pamphlet is a five-page description of a five day tour that includes such incredibly brilliant insights as visit the Louvre, the Eiffel Tower, and Notre Dame. Save your money and don't be disappointed, buy a reputable and useful guide from Lonely Planet or Rick Steves!

My dream place to go is Paris because I love the views in that place and while my friends talking about it I feel the ambiance of Paris too because of them. I am planning to go to Paris very soon so I am choosing a guide book that can help me and I don't hesitate to get this book. All pictures this book is lovely and I really enjoyed it. I appreciate the author in collecting this information about Paris. I am hoping that this book has more information about my dream place.

Travel guides are so much fun and so useful. I extremely liked this guide on Paris, France because it is very detailed in everything mentioned. Reading the book, it was well structured and pleasing to the eyes, the author utilized bold and italicized fonts making the information easily be found. This is really a good book that you can bring along with you when you go to Paris because it has all that you need!

Paris is one of the best country where I want to be with. I am so thankful that I found this book because atleast in just for awhile I've been in Paris. This is so interesting book that discusses the essential information about Paris. Recommended.

I love this book. There were alot of things I wouldn't have thought about before visiting France. This book made France even more interesting and fascinating to me. Especially the part of getting in the mood really got me in the mood :). I love this little guide.

Concise guide for Paris. It is small tour guide book but to the point for need to know things for travelers. Does not provide any historical context to places or suburban tour ideas.

Paris is an enchanting city, it's a pity I've only seen it on TV. I love travelling and Paris is definitely at the top of my "to-go-to" list, so buying this book was a preemptive strike. The first thing I learned is that I won't need a visa. This book is the first of its kind I've come across that actually tells you how to prepare for the trip including what to pack, going to the doctor and even books to read in order to get into the mood for Paris. The book presents you with the most interesting attractions to see, places to stay, places to eat and just about all the information one needs to survive their visit to France.
