JANET EVANOVICH is the #1 bestselling author of the Stephanie Plum and Between-the-Numbers novels, including Plum Spooky, Plum Lucky, Plum Lovin', and Visions of Sugar Plums. She lives in New Hampshire and Florida. Narrator LORELEI KING has recorded over 200 audiobooks, including several titles from Janet Evanovich's bestselling Stephanie Plum series. Audible also deemed her the Best Narrator of 2011.

Background: I spent about 2 months this summer reading the numbered Plum novels back to back. I had initially skipped the between-the-numbers novels after reading several reviews. After a month of no Plum novels at all, I decided the in-between books were better than nothing. So I started reading this anthology of the first three in-between books, fully expecting to be disappointed. I actually wasn't disappointed at all. I already knew to expect less Morelli and Ranger, but I didn't expect the new character Diesel to be so likable. These stories have holiday themes and supernatural elements, which give them a slightly different feel than Plum fans might be used to, but it's all still fun and humorous and there's still just the right amount of flirting and sexual tension. I think it's a good thing I waited until I finished the numbered novels to read the in-betweens, because I don't think the two series flow very well together. Reading this anthology, I felt like I was getting a completely different and fresher view of Stephanie's world that I never would have gotten had I stuck to books 1-16. I kind of wish the 4th in-between novel (A Between-the-Numbers Novel) was written soon enough to make this book. I think it's even better than the first three.

I just found Stephanie Plum and all of Her wacky friends a few years ago, when My sister gave Me one of Her paperbacks to read. I instantly fell in love with Janet Evanovich and her colorful and hilarious characters. I was instantly addicted and wake my spouse up often in the middle of the night due to the laugh out loud content and the "Between the Plums" box set had me, just like the numbers series does. I saw several disappointed readers give an unflattering review and I'm puzzled by this. I found the description very clear about the fact that "Between the Plums" was an arrangement of 3 previously published books all rolled into one. I would recommend this "box set" to anyone. And the price was a bargain when I compared the price to purchased each book individually. This was a quick read. I finished the entire thing in two days because I couldn't put it down.

I love her books - I no sooner finish one, usually in a day and/or night, that I order another.

Have enjoyed all of the books in the Stephanie Plum series, including this one.

Very pleased. Thank you.

wonderful writer

Loved this book
