Paddy Cummins is the author of twelve books including three on Malta. 'It's a Long Way to Malta' (2013) is a multiple number one best-seller. His epic sea book 'The Crying Sea' describes the 2008 shipwreck of a Malta fishing boat and this true story is now a major film: 'Simshar'. He lives in Ireland in summer and spends the winter months in Malta.

How I wish I had found this wonderful book before my love affair with Malta began. Having bought and read every guide book I could find before my first trip, I innocently believed I was knowledgeable of all the 'tourist sights' that this fabulous island has to offer - that was until I read this travel guide by Paddy Cummins. Not only does this lovely book include both the famous and secret gems of Malta, it is beautifully written in such a way that you just know that the author is literally 'In Love with Malta.' Paddy Cummins entices you to read his book, not just as a travel guide but as a story - the story that is Malta and its history, its culture and its people, that will make any reader immediately go online and book a flight to what is indeed a Hidden Treasure.by Nicola Kearns (Author of 'Under a Maltese Sky').

Brilliantly written, detailed book! In each chapter I fell more in LOVE with Malta. The author does a fine job at explaining everything you need to know about Malta. If you are interested in visiting, this book is a must read!
