Customer Reviews

I've merely started using it, but already find the maps are good and information confirms correctly what I already know about Venice after half a dozen trips. The sections outside the main islands are welcome information, even if our next stay will be limited to Venice. A regular user of Rough Guides, I find the familiar format makes use of the guide easier. This is a heavier book than the pocket versions but it appears worthwhile and will go in the baggage this next trip.
