Lost Sorcery: Mage Of Myths

Synopsis

What if magic sealed your fate? When Malian breaks a mage rune that is steeped in myths and legends, she invokes a curse that marks her for death before coming of age on her next birthday. Since she's more skilled as a hunter than the apprentice mage she's supposed to be, she visits a witch to uncover the secrets of the hidden prophecy about lost runes and elemental mages. The price of her salvation is to embark on an adventure with a prejudiced high-elf warrior who instils her with thoughts of romance even though he views her as a lowly human outcast. She'll have to swallow her pride and ignore her feelings to journey across Ispa with him, leaving everything she loves behind to stop the sorcery that threatens her existence. On a quest for answers, she's going to have to travel across the dark realms and face her worst fears. Along with her faithful shapeshifter companion, a heroic warrior, a werewolf and her gnomish wizard guardian, she discovers that she's going to have to save the world, assuming she doesn't set fire to herself, or they don't all get killed by demons first. Lost Sorcery is a young adult comedy and epic fantasy series with a strong female heroine. The fantasy fiction in the series is ideal for teen readers who enjoy high fantasy novels and funny romantic YA stories set in a magical world.
