Excelability In Advanced Latin: A Workbook For Students (Teacher's Guide)

Synopsis

This workbook for advanced high school Latin students is designed to aid students to read Latin. The first 10 chapters systematically review all of Latin grammar. The remaining chapters present rhetorical devices, scansion and meter, and passages for reading comprehension. The passages are taken from a wide variety of authors and offer practice for students preparing to take the SAT II, the NLE, and the A.P.* Latin tests. Every chapter contains exercises for practice and the grammatical and syntactical explanations are keyed to an appendix which contains the forms of Latin words. A Plethora of Passages: Over 75! Special Features An introduction which explains how to read a previously unseen passage of Latin All grammatical concepts from the nominative case to the subjunctive of attraction are explained Each chapter contains exercises based on the information presented Each chapter contains passages of Latin which feature the concepts presented in the chapter A timely epilogue on the events of September 11, 2001 Chapters on rhetorical devices and scansion/meter included A full grammatical appendix of Latin forms
