"This technique is pure genius." -- Charles Linn, D.C., Back Cover, September 1, 2000

Dr. Dean Howell was a mathematician before attending medical school at John Bastyr College of Naturopathic Medicine (1978-82). Upon graduation, he applied mathematical principles to medicine to create NeuroCranial Restructuring, a very precise and powerful manipulation technique that has been evolving over the past twenty-one years. As NCR produced spectacular healing results in most patients, word of mouth created enormous demand. Eventually, Dr. Howell had to close his family practice to focus exclusively on NCR. Over the past seven years Dr. Howell has also trained over fifty doctors (M.D.s, N.D.s, D.C.s, D.O.s and D.D.s) throughout the United States to perform this technique. Dr. Howell is based in Washington State, where he treats patients, trains doctors and conducts continuing research into NCR.

This is a great method and it works tremendously well as Dr. Howell describes but with training from a properly mentored instructor. I have studied this for over a year, which was very natural for me but others take longer to see results. This is a great healing maneuver to use for posture, clearer thought, migraines and most everything else too. Not a cure-all but a big help!

The book is well written and interesting to read. It's an interesting idea and gave me a lot of information about this little known therapy. The cost of the therapy is very prohibitive, so I haven't actually experienced it yet to see whether or not it really helps.
