Kindergarten-Grade 2 Readers will happily board the plane with precocious Junie B. as she sets off for Hawaii with her parents. Her school assignment is to complete a photo journal documenting her vacation, but from the start it's clear that her adventures are really misadventures. Her first photo captures two grouchpots, one in the seat in front of Junie B., and the other behind. Clearly, neither passenger is pleased with the girls' seat kicking, endless chatter, or imaginative games with stuffed elephant Philip Johnny Bob and Barbie doll Delores. In the hotel gift shop, Junie insists on purchasing a parrot swim ring that proves much too small and gets stuck on her body for the entire trip. Later episodes include an unfortunate encounter with eels and jellyfish while snorkeling, and a bird that nests in Junie B.'s hair when she adorns herself with exotic flowers. Clever language and outrageous antics make this irrepressible youngster a standout character. Brunkuss' delightful black-and-white illustrations are a delight. © Gloria Koster, West School, New Canaan, CT Copyright © Reed Business Information, a division of Reed Elsevier Inc. From USA TODAY: "Junie B. is the darling of the young-reader set." From Publisher' Weekly: "Park convinces beginning readers that Junie B. and reading are lots of fun." From Kirkus Reviews: "Junie's swarms of young fans will continue to delight in her unique take on the world....A hilarious, first-rate read-aloud." From Booklist: "Park, one of the funniest writers around . . . brings her refreshing humor to the beginning chapter-book set." From Time magazine: "Junie B. Jones is a feisty six-year-old with an endearing penchant for honesty." From School Library Journal: "Readers will relate instantly to the trials and tribulations of this first grader....She is always endearing and wonderfully funny."

I am a Junie B. Jones fan, but I don't think this is her best work. Barbra Park could have expanded her work. I feel like the book wasn't long enough. One thing she could have done was the section on the plane could have been longer, especially the part on the way back. Barbra Park wouldn't focus on one thing. She kept switching topics. One minute she will be eating breakfast the next she will be in the pool swimming. I also think she should have shown when Junie B. got back from her vacation and shared her photo album with her class. If you are a person who likes short books, read this. It may have 9 chapters but they are short. Don't think it was worth 5$.

The KIDS LOVE JBJ. If you have kids between the ages of 4-11 and you can read well. These books are awesome!!! I find myself cracking up at these well-written stories about a rambunctious young girl exploring life and learning, or having a misguided understanding about what grownups say, and what they say actually means. I mean side splitting, and the kiddos do the same thing, it is a whole family event before bed each night.

My granddaughter loves this book. I would highly recommend to anyone interested in books for the age range

Made me say ha-ha-ha! That Junie always leaves me smiling. Such a fun book to read as summer gets under way.

My daughter has loved these books since first grade. They are an easy quick read and she can polish them off in one sitting. Of course Junie is a precocious child and makes lots of bad decisions. Some of the wording used is not allowed in our house and my daughter tells me all about how Junie makes lots of bad decisions. We discuss that Junie is a great example of what not to do. She enjoys the humor and Junie is a wonderful way of hooking a young reader in.

Fun read for beginner chapter book readers. Fast paced and exciting. My 6 year old daughter thoroughly enjoys this series. She comments about all of the troubles that Junie gets herself into. She did say that children shouldn't talk loud like Junie.

Great book for kids to read!

He Loves it!
