This is our second copy of this book. We have tons of books, and this is our second favorite one. Our first favorite is Goodnight Moon. This book talks directly about God's love instead of just being a Bible themed book like a lot of others that we have, and puts things in language the kids can understand and relate to. It's also a lot of book for the money - we normally pick a few pages as opposed to reading it front to back for now since our baby is pretty young.

Got this for my 2 year old for Easter and she loves it. The prayers are short and sweet and to the point. I love that it rhymes and is a board book so she can't rip it up or get it wet or dirty. I would recommend this for anyone interested in getting a toddler into prayer.

Five star ratingBefore your newborn arrives, the child knows your voice. Really Woolly Bedtime Prayers is a great way to begin to read and pray with your child before you receive your child into your arms. It will become part of a natural progression to share with your newborn child and continue sharing it through the toddler years and beyond. Chances are the book may accompany your child into adolescence and maturity even though it's design is for younger readers. It may be the foundation upon which a love for scripture is built. The eloquent simplicity of God's messages will be cherished and clearly understood. It is quite possible this small treasure will instill a sense of yearning to hear more of God's word through scripture, prayer and meditation throughout a lifetime..

Beautifully illustrated and easy read to toddlers. Small hand friendly easy clean. Kids want more books they love the little woolly lamb.

This little padded board book is so perfect! I've been looking for something like this for a long time! It has a short bible verse, a very well written and easy to understand poem about three verse and a prayer, thanking God for his blessing that goes with the verse and poem. We usually read several every morning. My son is two and he loves the pictures and listens to the devotional very attentively. He seems to really like it and calls it his God book! I think these would be great for babies on up to four years of age. Also, if you are musical you can try singing the poem or verse for added interest!!

I bought several of these for baby shower gifts!

Lovely.

Absolutely adorable book of prayers. The drawings are so cute!

Really sweet little book, easy to understand for my 3-yr-old and focuses on the positive, even when addressing things like fears. The board book pages mean she can "read" it by herself and the short little prayers are easy for her to memorize her favorites.
