Points Of View: Readings In American Government And Politics

Synopsis

The eleventh edition of Points of View: Readings in American Government and Politics provides instructors and students with a manageable and accessible selection of readings that present succinct, thoughtful, and diverse perspectives across a broad range of issues in American Government today. This comprehensive reader features contrasting viewpoints on current political debates and traditional topics of interest in contemporary American Government courses. By providing two opposing positions for each topic, Points of View challenges students to examine and appreciate differing perspectives.

DiClerico received his Ph.D. at Indiana University. He is the author of THE AMERICAN PRESIDENT. Hammock received his Ph.D. from the University of Virginia and is currently serving as Chairman of the West Virginian State Election Commission.

used this book for a class i had learned a lot about how our government works and not work mostly not work .

Perfect

I had to get this as a text book for school. I would not have purchased this for pleasure. I just needed it for class.
