Customer Reviews

'Children and adults alike love to see what each day marked on an advent calendar will bring. Well this beautiful version will have them brimming with excitement as the 24 little boxes reveal their sweet surprises!' -- Love Crafting, Christmas 2013 'There is lots of festive goodness inside this book ... This is a really nice book with a good mix of quick and more complex projects, lots of different crafts to choose from and a "something for everyone" style that ranges from cute to stylish, and from quirky & fun to traditional.' -- Laura Howard, Bugs and Fishes craft blog

Caroline Wendt is a freelance journalist for gardening, food and interior design. She and Pernilla Wästberg discovered a common interest in crafts, and A Swedish Christmas is the result. Caroline especially likes to use yarn, sparkling beads, and flea-market finds. Pernilla Wästberg is a freelance photographer. She and Caroline Wendt discovered a common interest in crafts, and A Swedish Christmas is the result. Pernilla is especially fond of gingerbread, hyacinths and moss.

A very informative and well assembled book.

My Paternal Grandmother was 100% Swedish, favor her a lot I've been told. I favor her a lot. The book has brought back some of the special times we shared together. As for the crafts, they were cute but I am not into crafts. I much rather bake and cook.
