Rocking Chair Mystery Book 2 (Amish Romance)

Synopsis

Sarah Blough is feeling so alone. Her friend and ally, Jacob, no longer wants to help and she has no idea of where to start her quest for information on the English woman's visit to her home the night her mother died. She knows Jacob's mother knows something but will not reveal it, saying it needs to be left in the past. Jacob's guilt gets the better of him and he returns to Sarah's house, offering his help. She has an idea, his father, as the Bishop, must have more information on the members of their community. Eager to prove his worth to Sarah, Jacob makes a startling discovery when he finds Sarah's family tree. Afraid that Sarah will not believe him, he sneaks the directory out of his father's house for Sarah to see. His mother finds them looking at the directory and Sarah has little time to take in the information when the book is taken from her. Elizabeth Blough was married previously and had a daughter, called Maggie!

Customer Reviews

Another quick and easy read. The mystery is still not completely solved although there are a couple of clues. So, in to Book 3 so I can read how the mystery is solved!

Looking for book 4 so I know the end.

Good read but too difficult to get the next book in series. Series not completed by me .

Plot is kind of interesting but not well developed. Too much repeating of the same facts by the characters and very drawn out as far as things happening. Book 1 ended oddly, as did Book 2. On Kindle you can read a portion of the next book and then it ends asking you to "click here for the rest of the story." Takes you to a sign-up for a newsletter that won't work - get an error message saying the newsletter is not active! How exactly do we get to finish the story to find out the ending??
