Customer Reviews

A regular contributor to golf ranking panels and co-designer of the incredible new Cape Wickham Links in Australia, Darius Oliver has reviewed more than 1,500 golf courses worldwide. Renowned globally as the best-traveled and most authoritative voice on golf courses and design, Oliver has published four books and contributed to several others.

I own Darius Oliver's previous books on great golf courses and was very pleased to see that his winning streak continues with the "Modern Masterpiece" book. We are blessed to live in an era where golf course architecture is experiencing a renaissance and Oliver captures the essence of it perfectly. As usual, the stunning photography of the book is accompanied by thoughtful and well researched prose. It was especially interesting to look in depth at the new courses in New Zealand and Australia that make the golfer lust to fly Down Under.

great reference book with stunning pictures. Makes m really want to get my golf shoes on!

Just as good as the first two Planet Golf books from Darius

The recipient really enjoyed this for Christmas

Purchased as a gift, did not read or open. I'm sure it's fine.
