Well, I guess you get what you pay for. This book looks very much like something a high schooler took to FedEx for prints made. The pictures are poor quality and you can tell they were scanned onto a computer and cut and pasted, some of the pictures also obviously did not fit. I bought this for a gift, and if she wasn't 9 and just starting to be interested in drawing anime I would return it.

honestly, this book is pretty much a waste of money and paper. I honestly bought this book hoping for a bunch of references and the like, but it only contains 26 pages printed front and back. it also doesn't explain how to color them or set them on the face properly except for one example. it's rather useless for anyone who wants a lot of extra guidance, information, and material.

My granddaughter loved it she is the artist.

Not what I expected though...

not what I expected to easy

Daughter loved it

I just love them.

My nice was happy because she gat this book and now her drawings are going to be better. Thanks
