This is great advice after my ex breaking up with me after 9 yrs. I do however believe the email sent by Clay stating in the first line that he cannot help my situation or generic letter to people is not a good thing to send while not knowing the situation of people and giving such great advice in his books.

Great Book. Simple and easy to read with good attainable advise. Anyone can do this. The helped me with my healing process.

I thought it was informative and it actually helped me to feel a little better. Makes total sense. If we want something, try! That's all we can do. But the tips in here are fantastic!!

Finally a "get your ex back" plan that focuses on personal growth, rather than mind games! Even if it doesn't work, at least I will have grown as a person.

Just recently going to a hard break up. Reading thru's this book make me think about how to handle this better.

Not as good as expected

The problem with this and other books like it is that the focus is on the guy/girl and getting them. It is too often approached as a game or a means to an end. The real lesson is to be yourself and if s/he doesn't like you or doesn't come around then s/he isn't good enough for you.

I found this book was not quite as informative or helpful as other books in the genre. If you're seeking solid and informative advice you should probably look elsewhere
