I'm reading this series to my son, who is in kindergarten and my 2nd grader is reading the series to his Dad. We fully enjoy the series and had pre-ordered this Outback version and the next to Himalayas. We received the back at the beginning of the week and are already done; now eagerly waiting on the next version...sometime in Aug. We love the team work that has developed between all the charters of team red and now with the new member as team 10. As a mom its exciting to read and share with my son some amazing locations around the world and the creature features section on animals; both sons are very excited to now travel to all of these locations! We hope Kristin continues the race beyond the Himalayas.

My 8 year old son loves reading this series. He really enjoys realistic fiction and I like that he is learning while he is reading. He is almost done with the last book in the series and is searching for something to read while waiting for Next Ranger in Time to get released and another book from this series to be published. I would definitely recommend this series as a mother and a teacher.

This is such a cute series have been reading them as a family read together book. Arrived in great condition looking forward to starting this one.
