As a German myself and having the memories of the great food made by my Oma, I am always searching for German cookbooks that have the food that I enjoyed as a child and into adulthood. As many of you know since you are looking for a true German cookbook, they are few and far in between or impossible to find. This one has some of the exact recipes that my Oma used to make as her normal and daily meals. Being from the North in Germany, I have found this to be one of the few and most accurate books out in the market today. And for all those who believe we just eat Brats and Beer, you will be pleasantly surprised. If you are looking for a good German Recipe for their pancakes, I will gladly email that to those who want it, that is one that is hard to find still. And they do put the French Crepe' to shame....

Breakway and add some down-home German cooking to your family meals. You will make Grandma proud...surprise her/treat her with something from the choices offered here.

We are enjoying reading through the recipes and can't wait to try them.

I have been searching for a butter cake recipe for years. My grandmother always made it without using a recipe. I guess it was how she had learned from her mother. I am so happy I found this book with a recipe that sounds so close to her wonderful cake. There are many other recipes I am looking forward to trying.

Compliments to the Author, as a true bavarian by heart even after living in USA for most of my life I am annoyed when i find writings about pseudo german dishes. This book is a delight and so easy to follow recipes.

Great book. All the recipes I remember from my years in Berlin. loved all the little asides about the history of the dishes and their names. I got one for each of the cooks in my family.

Delightful savoring's of Germany. Have tried a couple.
