Who's Afraid Of Contemporary Art?

Synopsis

A smart and playful introduction to the often-mystifying world of contemporary art. What is contemporary art? What makes it contemporary? What is it for? And why is it so expensive? From museums and the art market to biennales and the next big thing, Who's Afraid of Contemporary Art? offers concise and pointed insights into today's art scene, decoding "Artspeak," explaining what curators do, demystifying conceptual art, exploring emerging art markets, and more. In this easy-to-navigate A to Z guide, the authors' playful explanations draw on key artworks, artists, and events from around the globe, including how the lights going on and off won the Turner Prize, what makes the likes of Marina Abramovic and Ai Weiwei such great artists, and why Kanye West would trade his Grammys to be one. Packed with behind-the-scenes information and completely free of jargon, Who's Afraid of Contemporary Art? is the perfect gallery companion and the go-to guide for when the next big thing leaves you stumped. 35 color illustrations

Kyung An is Assistant Curator at the Guggenheim Museum, New York. She holds a PhD from the Courtauld Institute of Art, University of London. Jessica Cerasi is Exhibitions Manager at Carroll / Fletcher gallery; she was Assistant Curator of the 20th Biennale of Sydney in 2016 and previously Curatorial Assistant at the Hayward Gallery, London.

I don't know much about art or the art world, but got this book as a gift from my sister who works at a gallery. It covers lots of artists alive today, but also talks about galleries and museums. Learned a lot reading this and would highly recommend to anyone who wants a guide to the art world of today that's easy to read and fun!

A fun intro to contemporary art -- especially love the questions. It also makes a great gift!!
