No explanation needed. A major reason why the United States of America is the greatest country in the world.

I really think this is a book that every American should have and read. All Americans should know and understand what this country is all about, we have had so many Americans give there lives so we can have a Constitution for the People by the People.

I'm memorizing the Constitution and Amendments and have copies in my car, on my desk, and in the kitchen. The contents, of course, are brilliant, and the size of the booklet is perfect for my needs.

Everyone clamors for their rights, but many don't comprehend what was intended when written. Study of the Constitution and Declaration of Independence is important so that we also understand our responsibilities under the protective covenants.

It is a great way to carry the Constitution with me on my tablet or my phone.

The United States has a wonderfully short constitution. Sometimes its a bit vague, so we enjoy arguing about its real meaning, but its served us well. And yet, we often argue about it without knowing what it really says. Do your self a favor and read it.

Easy to carry. As advertised

Necessary in everybody's home. now more than ever!
