Customer Reviews

From a ruse to true love and marriage, this is an enjoyable book. It seems a little like it was either heavily edited or the author just wrote a basic story. The real meat is missing so you really can't get into the characters. The storyline is good but could definitely be better, and the characters never get to show true depth.

Angelic ladies & devilish men. Glad there are a good amount of heroes in this book. Don't like it when it shows all the Lords as money grubbing and preying on rich debutants. Fortunately this had only a few that were only fortune hunters & taking what they did not deserve. Enjoyed reading.

A good story about English life and love . How the upper crust could be so against true love and always wanted their girls to marry for money and title. A good love story Really enjoyed the trip this book took me on. Can't wait to read the next story and see how Juliet and Augustus fare.

Nice story. A little sappy at times but I enjoyed it just the same. No violence and it was a clean read.

This is a cute romance which I enjoyed. My only complaint is the ending seemed a little rushed. I think it could have benefited from a little more "tension" before wrapping up.

A well-written historical romance. Thank you for writing and offering a story that allows one see the scope of this authors. I shall be reading more of her work! Great job, Suzanne!

I loved this story. I fell in love with the characters. She describes them so well. I love romance stories. This story made me cry but I was very happy at the end. Love conquers everything.
