Secrets Of The Dead: Detective Robyn Carter Crime Thriller Series, Book 2

Synopsis

Three murders. Three innocent victims. What secrets did they share with their killer? A bottle of bubble bath and colorful, plastic boats were scattered in small puddles on the floor. In the bathtub lay Linda Upton, fully-clothed, her lips a shade of blue, and her bloodshot eyes wide open. When a young mother is found drowned in the bath, clutching a receipt saying 'all debts paid', Detective Robyn Carter knows it's just the beginning of a harrowing case. She recognizes the signs of a serial killer, and when a second victim with a receipt is found, her worst fears are confirmed. With the local press whipping the public into a frenzy, Robyn is under pressure to solve the crime yesterday. But her team can't find a link between the two bodies, and the cracks are starting to show. Customer Reviews

This is Book 2 of the DI Robyn Carter Series. It's absolutely an edge of your seat read! Robyn is a complex woman; the way she thinks, how she puts the clues together. Even her life with Davies helps her in the present. Again, an outstanding read, Carol! I'm looking forward to the next DI Robyn

Carter book 3!!

It's not just "who did it", but a thought-provoking journey to "why". I love the recurring characters who reveal more of themselves with each book.

Suspenseful through out....Well written and lots of sharp turns.....

I lost a lot of sleep as I kept reading well past my bedtime . I am trying to be like Davies and work out the puzzle. A great read. Keep them coming.

I really enjoyed this book! It was very interesting from start to finish. It has a good, solid plot, interesting characters and is well written.

One of the better "who done it " tomes recently read. The instinct of Robyn and persistence was a good touch

Book 1 made me buy this one. Like the personalities . Real down to earth and believable. Will get book 3.

Wonderful and suspenseful
