Everything time I travel, I don't learn and keep going back buying Fodor's travel guides! Don't get me wrong, it is a good guide for general information when traveling to a place you never been before, BUT information provided is not accurate time after time! Examples: I wasn't able to find restaurants mentioned by Fodor's in Italy; or recommendation to go to Colon in Panama when commented numerous times by travelers on Trip advisors forum not to travel there due to safety issues!

A very informative book and I am enjoying it. Betty

This guide helped me get an overall lay of the land. I was able to plan my vacation with more detail and comfort knowing the information obtained in this book

This guide book will be useful only if you are going to the most populous cities or the most trampled tourist spots. Very little info on the bocas region.

Great book. So helpful, so informative. Has everything you need to know. Would recommend it highly to anyone considering a trip to Panama.

After looking at many websites about Panama I still had too many unanswered questions. What to do next? Before the internet, I always used travel guides, so I ordered the Fodor guide and immediately felt that my questions were answered. There were several excellent suggestions that I've used. My family trip is this Christmas season, so I haven't fully used the Guide, but I plan to take parts with me.

Pure unadulterated crap. I gave this travel book to my local library rather than throwing it away. You must peruse it and decide if it has value for you.

These books are great. I know much of this info is available on line but nothing like a good book.

Who can beat !
