Dennis E. Hoffman. Ph.D., teaches criminal justice at the University of Nebraska at Omaha.

I bought this book for my son who will be taking criminal justice in the fall, he is not a reader so I thought this might be a good book for him to start with. It came very quickly and was a very reasonable price. He has read half the book and says he enjoys reading it.

This is a great resource for anyone who is deciding to take the Criminal Justice DSST. In my humble opinion this would be the only study material that you would need to pass your exam comfortably. This book is packed with a wealth of information.

Very happy with prompt delivery and also happy with book. This will be very helpful in early studding for my daughter as to which criminal justice is what she is wanting to major in when she attends collage in a year and a half.

Great job. Thank you

Helpful and concise, a good place to start for someone like me who is a complete beginner.

Capsule version of a 400 page text: cramming review!!!!!!!!!!!!

Good reading, quick and to the point. Helped me decide if that career is something I want to pursue, enjoy!

Got to me relatively in the time told, a few scuffs, but no other markings, will definately help my studies! Thanks!
