Francis Turretin (1623-1687) has been called "the best expounder of the doctrine of the Reformed Church" (Samuel Alexander), "a marvelous synthesizer" (Roger Nicole), and "a towering figure among the Genevan Reformers" (Leon Morris). His Institutio Theologiae Elencticae, first published in 1679, was the fruit of some thirty years' teaching at the Academy of Geneva.

Francis Turretin's family paid a heavy price of survival and overcame opposition to soar in scholarship

I've had the distinct honor of poring over a wonderful Reformation classic, Francis Turretin's Justification, excerpted from his three volume set, The Institutes of Elenctic Theology, which was published in 1688. Francis Turretin was a pastor in the Geneva, Switzerland, church and a professor of theology at the Academy in Geneva. He lived from 1623 to 1687. With the skill and precision of a surgeon, Turretin slices away the cancerous ideas of Roman Catholicism/Arminianism/Pelagianism and exposes the healthy tissue of the biblical doctrine of justification. This book is a wonder to read. Differing very much from the style of today's writers, Turretin was thorough and painstaking. There is left no place for "studied ambiguity
