Australia For Tourists, Victoria And Tasmania. Book 2

Synopsis

Get a day overseas cobbers, Just bunged a shrimp on the barbie for you all. Cobbled together these four bonza travel books, with all their clickable links and photographs, to give you all an idea of what to expect if you make one of the best decisions of your lives and visit your cobbers down-under in Oz. There are four completed, so far, with another in the works for New Zealand. The four finished are: 1. Australia for Tourists, New South Wales and Australian Capital Territory, Book 1 2. Australia for Tourists, Victoria and Tasmania, Book 2 3. Australia for Tourists, Queensland and Northern Territory Book 3, 4. Australia for Tourists, South Australia and Western Australia Book 4. At the bottom of each book, there is the same write-up on Australia and its interesting history. Don't forget cobbers, we have also included hotels in each of the major cities, and not to neglect the battlers, we have also included backpackers".

Customer Reviews

When I put this book into my shopping cart, I was looking forward to learning something about Tasmania, learn about places to go, accommodation and some other important things that are important to travelers. However, I did not get any of it. The book mainly consists of photos that aren't really worth much on a basic Kindle. I also did see no reason to follow any of the links as it all did not seem very trustworthy and if I wanted to look at websites, I would have done so without needing the help of an eBook. When I order a book from , I expect proper content, not just a collection of links. The author also addresses the readers as if we're his best mate and a little dumb - which most readers are not. If you are looking for a proper travel guide to Tasmania, then I would recommend you to get Lonely Planet Tasmania (Travel Guide) - this guide has all the information you need - including some nice photos, very useful maps and links that lead to trustworthy sources. If you travel, then that's the kind of guide you need - not just photos.
