Illustrator Linda Hill Griffith tries to infuse her life, as well as her designs, with joy and humor. She has illustrated countless greeting cards, calendars, and children's books for companies such as HarperCollins. She lives in Orange County, California.

I bought this book for my 3 year old niece, and it's mate "Best Ever Ring Bearer" for her twin brother, who will be the flower girl and ring bearer at their uncle and I's wedding this spring. This book is just lovely, it is well written for a children's book, not cheesy or overly simplified, but actually informative and pleasant to read. These stories have been required reading in their household every night since I gave them to them, but the reader must be very careful to change all of the names in the stories to suit our family, or suffer being corrected time and time again by a frustrated toddler, "No ma tante It's not Sophie! It's Elaina!" I would highly recommend this book to any bride looking for a keepsake that will be both fun and instructive for her littlest attendants!

I purchased this book for my niece as a small gift before the wedding. I read through it before gifting it and feel that it was a great way to introduce a young one to the idea of being in a wedding. It talks about the importance of her job during the special day. It was a great purchase to gift right after finding her flower girl dress.

Such a cute story, was part of a pre-wedding gift for my flower girl. It goes over all the different roles flower girls may have (throwing petals, holding bouquets, holding signs, etc).

I purchased this to ask my 5 year old niece to be in my wedding...I thought it was so cute but didn't know if she would really take it to heart. Boy I was wrong! Every time we talk about the wedding she references this book! She LOVES It Bought this for my 3 year old niece for a flower girl gift. She'll love it! What a great idea.

So sweet. Excellent condition.

An adorable gift for our Flower Girl - really helped having this read to her before bedtime. We gave this as a gift four weeks before the wedding to get the kids ready to walk down the aisle. The parents told us it was a great help in giving the kids an idea of what would need to be done on the big day and a good way to involve the kids beforehand.

This book was adorable. It gives a good lesson about what the duties of a flower girl are, and also had a good storyline. The girl in the book has a chance to really save the day at her aunts wedding, which will inspire all soon to be flower girls to be helpful and on their best behavior the day of the wedding.
