I've owned ultima games since I was 12 years old. I started with ultima V warriors of destiny and soon had to start collecting every game in the series back to ultima II. I have all the cloth maps as well. This book does a great job covering Ultima IV V and VI in great detail with fun stories as well. I would recommend this book to anyone who is a fan of the ultima series and even those that play ultima online would do well to read up on the history of Britannia and really learn where Ultima came from.

If you are a fan of the Ultima series and especially Ultima 7 this book is a must. How cool is it to read a novel that describes the game you are playing?

Though Caroline Spector has yet to publish a book entailing Serpent Isle, Ultima 8, and Ultima 9, this book is perfectly suited towards its original purpose. It provides handy maps, goods tables, and a straightforward walkthroughs to the Black Gate as well as Ultima Underworld 1, and also the first small parts of Serpent Isle and Underworld 2. I particularly enjoyed reading the novelized walkthroughs, as well as the introductions by Richard Garriott and Lord British. Now if she'd just release another one, I could get out of Pagan....

If you are an ultima fan, this book is a must, it has great stats for weapon damages, maps, and more. Tells the story of Ultima Underworld, and Ultima 7 is story form, through the eyes of the avatar.
