Jacob Saar (Ph.D.) has lived in Israel since 1957. He is a devoted hiker and has spent the last 40 years hiking the country. He has vast knowledge of the history of Israel. Jacob is the author of the Israel National Trail guide in both English and Hebrew. In addition to hiking the INT several times, he has hiked the Jesus Trail and every long trail in Israel. Yagil Henkin (Ph.D.) was born in Israel and has hiked the INT and every long trail in the country. His Ph.D. is in History. He has hiked the INT three times.

This is the Israel National Trail site and the advocate recommendation for "THE Guide" that is most current and widely purchased guide. It has very important information about the trail, places, etc. Good guide!

Well, maybe not. But certainly the best game in town, and great for feeding my fantasy of a protracted hike over the trail some day. Targeted at more 'hard-core' hikers than myself (mentions tearing out only the pages you need, to save a few grams), but definitely contains the information you want. A bit pricey, but in terms of information density, definitely worth owning.
