Customer Reviews

I lived in Huntsville Alabama for a year. This book was great to me because of the history facts along with good ghost tales. I recommend to anyone who has an interest in the paranormal. The author needs to write a book about the ghosts of Jackson County Alabama:-)

The fact that the author obviously didn't have someone proofread the text makes it very difficult to finish. The errors are so numerous that they are distracting. Aside from that, there's very little content. A typical chapter consists of a page and a half of history followed by a paragraph of very vague haunting references.

I thought it would go into detail, but it just pretty much have a history of the city, no real ghost stories. It was a disappointment.
