I purchased this map to plan my days in London, thinking I could figure out what to see in close proximity each day. This map is ridiculous. Only a small portion of the city is even included on the map! The area that is on the map is enlarged so much that you can't tell what is within walking distance. It was a total waste of money. The only usable thing is the subway map, which you can get online for free.

Large map, but doesn't cover all the "touristy" areas of city center London. First disappointing MapEasy we've ever purchased.

Used this and the England Map easy guidemap for our trip. Compact. and laminated

I opened it, looked at it and returned it to . It looked like the cartoon-style advertising maps that you see from the local chamber of commerce but only covers a small area of London. Will look for a Streetwise map locally as one map is not worth ordering on line!

While I like the style of the map, a HUGE section of London is missing. Anything east of Westminster including the Eye and Tower of London is not on this map. Covers maybe 1/3 to 1/2 of the city. You've been warned.

It was useful and made well, easy to fold.

This was perfect, easy to read with big print and lots of photos.

I have about a dozen of these maps and have used them to get a round NYC, Washington, D.C. and Barcelona, Spain. It's the ONLY map I would recommend as a frequent traveler. It has all the points of interest in a simple format. Apart from my Garmin GPS, it's my best resource.
